

Cananoe And 1000 Islands

Picturesque Souvenir of Gananoque and Thousand Islands

Gananoque is finely situated on the St. Lawrence in the heart of the Thousand Islands, and for one who wishes to explore the Islands at leisure, it affords very pleasant headquarters. A steamer makes daily trips through the Thousand Islands, the tourist is well looked after, and here he will see the finest scenery possible

PUBLISHED BY
CLIFFORD SINE, DRUGGIST AND STATIONER,
GANANOQUE, ONT., CANADA

Mouth of the Gananoque River

Gananoque from Clock Tower

Gananoque from Clock Tower

Clock Tower and Reservoir

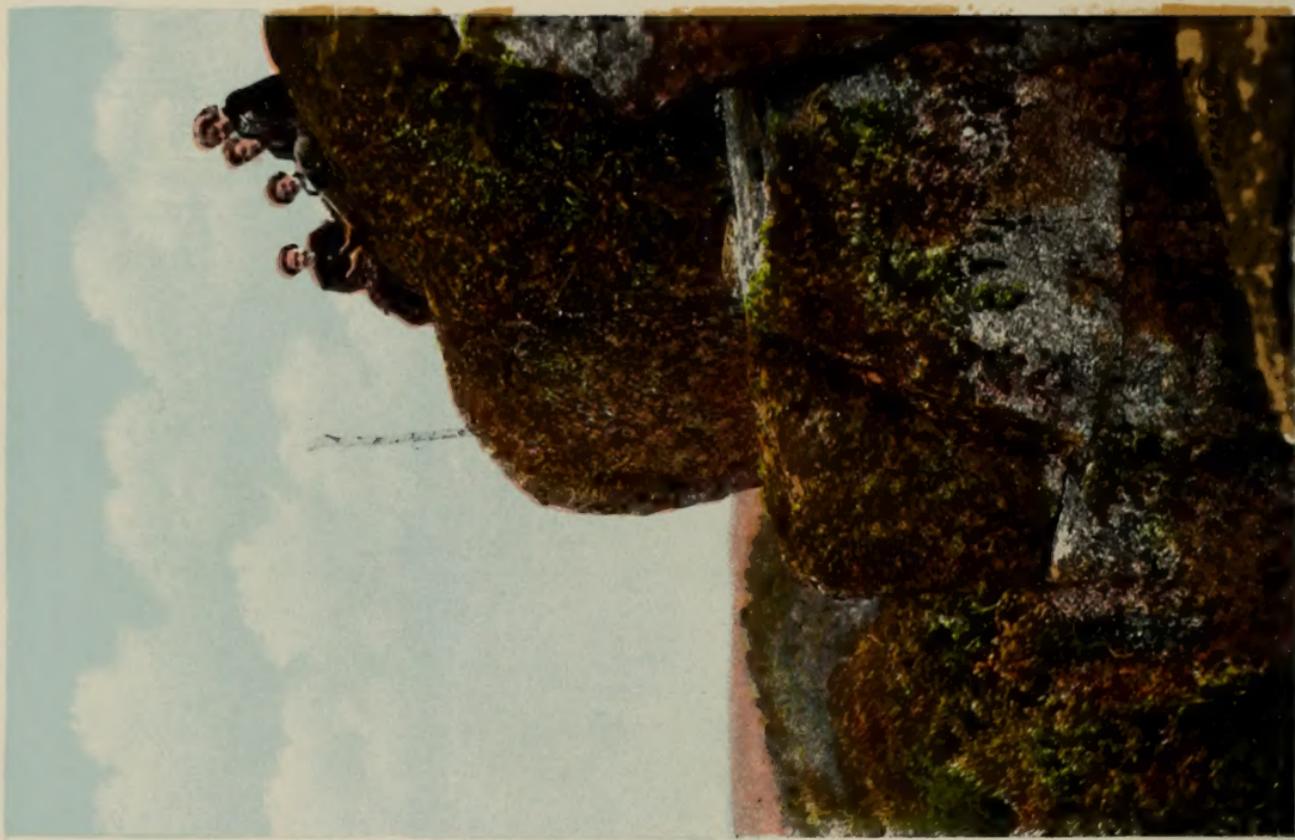

Boating Club Houses

Mill Dam

107,624-13

Top of the Mountain

Station and Dock

Bank of Toronto, King Street

Provincial Hotel

Gananoque Inn

View from the Bluff, Thousand Islands

The Sisters, Thousand Islands

Idyl Wyld, Thousand Islands

Camp Iroquois, Thousand Islands

Sunday Evening Service Half Moon Bay, Thousand Islands, near Gananoque, Ont.

Sunday Evening Service, Half Moon Bay, Thousand Islands

Underwood's Cottage, Thousand Islands

Cherry Island, Thousand Islands

Store, American Canoe Association Camp, Sugar Island

Prof. Nichol's Cottage, Thousand Islands

The Willows, Thousand Islands

Residence of E. H. Dickson, Texas, Thousand Islands

The Lost Channel, Thousand Islands

Sugar Island, one of the Thousand Islands

Mississaqua, Thousand Islands

Among the Thousand Islands, near Gananoque

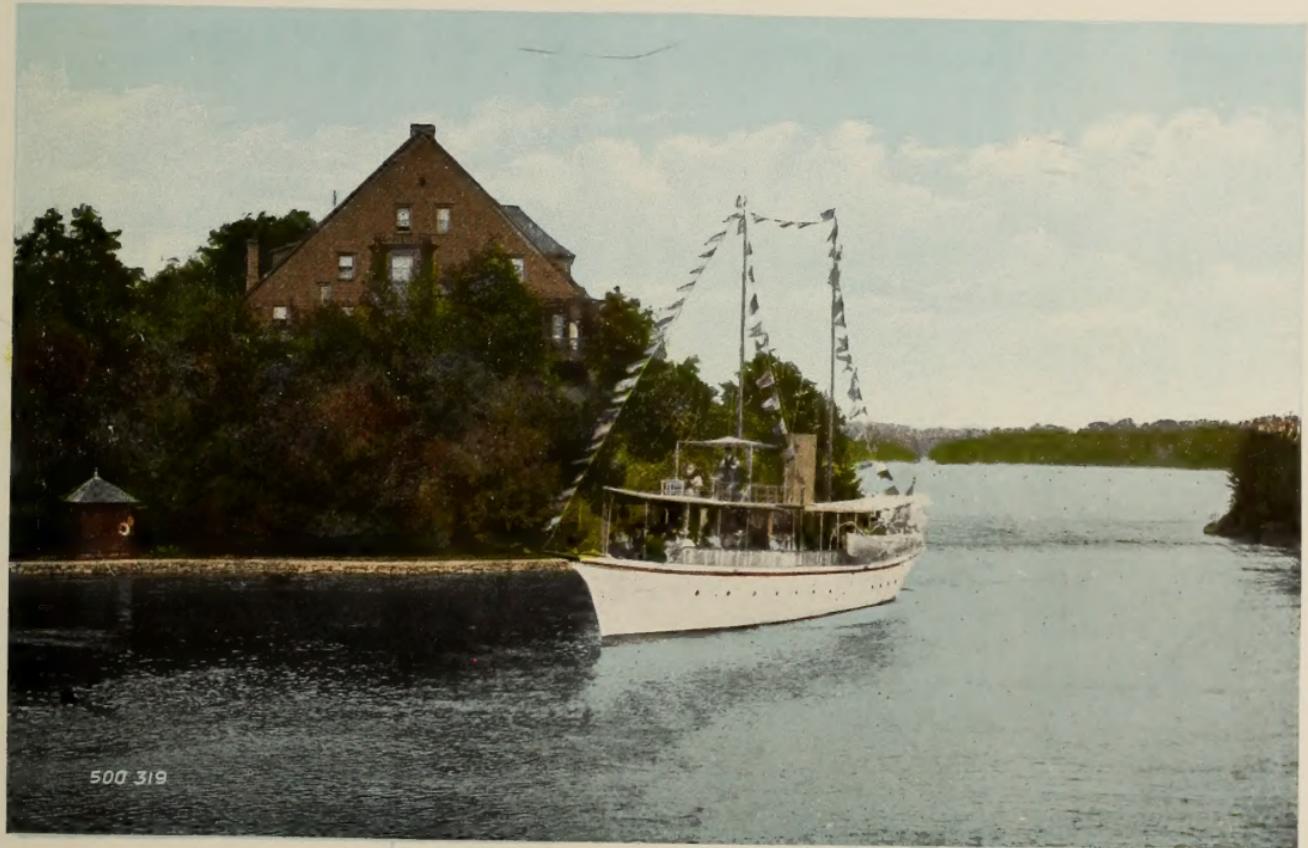

Sugar Island, the Summer Home of the American Canoe Association, near Gananoque

The Narrows Light, Thousand Islands

Huckleberry Island, Thousand Islands

500 319

Echo Lodge, Rockport, Thousand Islands

Tremont Park House, Thousand Islands

